

Real Wealth is multi-faceted and this is never truer than during tax season. If you have questions or would like to discuss the following topics or any other elements related to your financial plan, please know we're here for you.

The SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 has delayed the RMD age from 72 to 73 starting in 2023.	Manage income tax brackets. Determine whether to recognize capital gains or losses in 2023. Also, consider whether a Roth conversion may be advantageous.	Consider whether any educational expenses are deductible for 2022. Are you eligible to claim the American Opportunity or Lifetime Learning Credit?	If itemizing, mortgage interest and property taxes may be deductible.
Fund qualified retirement plans and IRAs. Contribution limits increased substantially in 2023. Prior year IRA and Roth IRA contributions can be made until April 18, 2023.	Review 2022 spending and create or adjust your 2023 budget. Consider any anticipated major sales or purchases in 2023.	Higher rates have boosted the appeal of cash equivalent investments. We can help evaluate the best investment options for extra cash you have on hand, based on your situation.	Have you purchased an electric vehicle or residential solar energy equipment? If so, you may qualify for an electric vehicle or residential energy credit.

Investment Management

Non-Portfolio Risk Management

Borrowing & Liability Management

Estate Planning & Charitable Giving

For most tax payers, medical costs can provide tax savings if they total more than 7.5% of your adjusted gross income.

- Life
- Health
- Disability
- Business & Professional Liability
- Property & Casualty
- Umbrella Liability
- Long-term Care

Contributions to a Health Savings Account are tax deductible. 2022 contributions can generally be made until the tax deadline, April 18, 2023.

With the rise in real estate values in recent years, consider contacting your insurance provider to verify your policy provides adequate coverage based on your home's current replacement cost.

Review, create or update your estate plan (Wills/Revocable Trusts) to account for life events and transitions that may have occurred in 2022 or will be upcoming in 2023.

Consider making a Qualified Charitable Donation(s) from your IRA if you are over age 70.5.

For 2022, any gifts in excess of $16,000 per person must be reported and may be subject to gift tax. The annual gift exclusion amount is $17,000 per person in 2023.

Review personal and charitable giving objectives and methods of funding. Plan for any deductions in 2023.